DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.
CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE, that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London state that Dr.
Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely and mean no other than Dr.
Browne's—See Times, July 12, 1874.
The Public are therefore cautioned against using any other than
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.
REMEDIAL USE AND ACTION.
This INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, or refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the nervous system restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous efficacy in every case of Cholera in which the Public are therefore cautioned against using any other than
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.
Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—
Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Colic, Valvular Ac-croup Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Hysteria, &c.
The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. P. Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet
Dec 31, 1864.
From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay: Chlorodyne is a useful, valuable remedy for Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fei-rily owe my restoration to health after eighteen months severe suffering, and when other medicines had failed.
Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary, India reports (Dec 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.
Extract from Medical Times, Jan. 10, 1866—Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox remedial professionals. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.
Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.
Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as Chlorodyne from which frequent fatal results have followed.
See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1869, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered. Sold in bottles at 1s 3d, 2s 6d, 4s 6d, and 11s each.
CAUTION—None genuine unless with the words "Dr. J.
B. Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

THE BURNING OF THE ROYAL THEATRE.

The opera of "Hamlet" was about to be played at the Theatre of Arts, and the actors had nearly all assembled, when at a quarter past seven the stage curtain caught fire from a gas jet behind it. The fire speedily extended to all the friezes and scenes, a thick smoke enveloping the entire stage. A train of gunpowder next carried it to the rest of the theatre. The actors, including a large number of soldiers and chorists, were dressing in their respective rooms when the alarm was given. The outlets were very insufficient, and a terrible panic arose among the unfortunate people stifled by the smoke or surrounded by the flames. They rushed to the door, but the fire had penetrated underneath the staircase. The only means of escape, therefore, if such it could be called, was to jump out of windows at the height of a fourth or fifth story. The people rapidly collected outside perceived hands clinging to the bars of these windows, and mattresses were hastily sought and placed underneath, thus breaking partially the fall of those who jumped down. All but one of the singers intrusted with the solos were saved, their boxes being on the first floor. Madame Preva, learning that her husband was on an upper story, could not be dissuaded from going to his help, and she fell among the flames. M. Guillemot saved many of the female singers, and only succeeded in saving himself by climbing from one of the windows. Chains of men were formed to the Seine, and a steam fire-engine was also set to work, the garrison and the civil population doing their utmost; but the fire burnt on through the night, and it was not mastered till noon to-day. The theatre is totally burnt down, and twelve houses surrounding it have been partially or wholly destroyed. The number of victims is not precisely known. Of the 35 soldiers belonging to the 74th Regiment who were to figure on the scene, the body of one was found, and seven are injured, two of them seriously, while the muster roll shows four others missing. The leader of the chorus was suffocated while clinging to a window, and fell back into the flames. Sixteen victims have been taken to the hospital, four of them expiring almost as soon as they arrived. It is believed that 25 persons are either killed or injured. The theatre was built in 1774, and had recently been purchased by the municipality. The damage is estimated at 2,000,000f.

A REVEREND ECCENTRIC.

The Vicar of St. Peter's Minor, Cornwall, who lately advertised that he would reject all letters addressed to him as "Reverend," and would be styled only "G. W. Manning," died on Saturday. He had his coffin made years ago, and has slept either upon or in it for many months. It was fitted with mattress and pillow, and lately he employed a carpenter to alter it so as to make it more comfortable. For several weeks he has slept within the coffin. The walls of his bedroom were papered with letters and with notices of the steps to be taken in the event of his being seized with illness. Among other eccentricities, he from the pulpit one Sunday gave his domestic servant notice to leave his employ. Although thus peculiar, the deceased continued to do his duty in his church till very recently. The population of the parish is under one hundred.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

The Paris correspondent of the Times writes:—The three Powers have now taken a very clear and firm resolution. They will submit to Turkey the final conditions of the insurgents, not tending them down, but emphasizing them. It would be almost a kind of autonomy for the Insurgent Provinces, for the idea is to extend the same conditions to all the Turco-Christian Provinces. If Turkey accepted this, Austria and Russia would pledge themselves to the insurgents to watch over the scrupulous execution of the stipulated conditions, even at the cost of intervention, and this would be the prelude of a veritable autonomy. A more complete, rational, and reassuring scheme is, however, to exist. According to this, Austria would enter the Turco-Christian Provinces. She would occupy Herzegovina, Bukovina, and Bosnia; complete separation from her Christian Provinces would be imposed on Turkey; Montenegro, Herzegovina, Bukovina, Bosnia, and Serbia would become so many independent States; they would form a built of autonomous Christian Provinces, placed between European Turkey and Egypt itself. It is thought that the Mohammedan world settled in these territories would speedily retire into the Mohammedan Provinces, and that thus the isolation of the latter would be effected, with the cessation of the perpetual conflicts which convulse Europe and stain the Balkan peninsula with blood.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mrs. Baker writes to the Times from Holly Lodge, Stratham:—"As a paragraph in your paper of Monday morning relative to the health of my dear husband, Col. Valentine Baker, must, I feel sure, cause great pain to his many friends, I am thankful to be able to state that the most serious symptoms, which recently caused so much alarm both to myself and to his old family, have yielded to medical treatment. I cannot, however, hide from myself the terrible fact that such continued and trying confinement, after his active and useful life, has rendered him thoroughly out of health, and his condition causes me the most constant and distressing anxiety."

Kirkwall Bay, Orkney, was alive with whales on April 22. A great many boats put off in pursuit, and the chase was continued for several hours, and the result was that 60 whales were driven on the shore. Nine were captured by two boats' crews, but in consequence of the flood tide and the steepness of the beach the others escaped. The scene was one of great excitement, and was witnessed by a vast crowd of spectators.

MONTREAL, May 10.—The well known grocery firm of Messrs. Dufresne & McFarley has suspended, and the affairs were placed to-day in the hands of Mr. Lajoie, official assignee. The firm has carried on an extensive business here and in Ottawa, and its liabilities are large, probably between $200,000 and $300,000, but owing to a dissolution of partnership it will be some time before the exact amount can be correctly estimated. It is understood, however, that their liabilities are exceeded by their assets, and all claims on the estate will probably be met. The failure was precipitated by old claims, and hopes are entertained that a settlement will be arrived at, and, if time to realize is allowed, this can probably be accomplished satisfactorily. The partnership was dissolved some time ago, and Mr. Dufresne is winding up the affairs of the firm.

The large hardware firm of John McDougall & Son, Three Rivers, which has been struggling in deep water for some time past, has suspended payment.

OTTAWA, May 11.—A surveying party of the Canada Pacific railway, in charge of Mr. Meacham, left last night for Fort William. Mr. Lindsay Russell and a party of engineers will leave on Monday next for Fort Garry.

A number of American lumber dealers are in town, but they are offering such low prices that mill-men refuse to sell. The argument they use in favor of low prices is that freight rates are so low on the trunk lines that Michigan lumber is crowding the eastern market.

MONTREAL, May 8.—Tenders are called for the stock of McDonald, Moodie & Co., wholesale hat and cap manufacturers, who lately assigned. The stock, as per inventory, is valued at $86,322.

A telegram from Gaspé announces the death of the widow of the late Hon. J. Lebourdier, Senator for Gaspé.

MONTREAL, May 1.—An infant daughter of Mr. L. Deformies was vaccinated from the arm of a negro child, by mistake, of course, and came out of the ordeal, not black all over, but covered with black hairy marks.

Provincial Treasurer Church will shortly proceed to England to negotiate a loan of $400,000 to complete the Montreal, Ottawa and Western railway.

QUEBEC, May 10.—The Engineer-in-Chief is preparing a report on the soundings in connection with the gravinlock.

Their Excellencies, the Governor-General and Lady Dufferin, will arrive in Quebec on or about the 10th inst. It is reported that the Premier will visit Quebec at the same time.

BELLEVILLE, May 10.—Miss Macpherson, with a party of children whom she brought out in the Scandinavian, arrived at the Marchmont Home here last night.

The Rev. John Potts, of the Metropolitan Church, Toronto, made a very sensible announcement on Sunday last when he declined to read any more "intimations" from the pulpit of lectures, soirees, meetings, &c., when there were papers in which to advertise them.

PETERBORO', Ont., May 8.—The most awful tragedy that ever happened in our usually peaceful town has just occurred.

Mr. Jas. Ryan, who has been drinking very hard lately, stabbed his wife through the heart, in their own house, about 8 o'clock to-night. The poor woman ran out on the street and up the sidewalk to the next door, and then fell dead. She leaves four children. She was a most amiable woman and highly respected.

Ryan is one of the oldest inhabitants, and was always considered a quiet, respectable man. He is a man of means. There is great excitement in town. An inquest is being held. Ryan was promptly arrested and locked up. This awful crime, committed by one of our leading business men in his own house, on his quiet, unoffending wife, has sent a thrill of horror through the entire community.

An Archaeological Survey of India.

(From the London Builder.)

Arrangements are being made by the government of India for a complete archaeological survey of the whole country; and General Cunningham, who will be entrusted with the duty of conducting it, has issued a circular to the various local governments, requesting information as to the origin or derivation of the names of noteworthy places, the date of their foundation, the extent of the ruins, the nature of color, and the materials used in building, the form, size, style and ornamentation of each building, and its history and probable cost, with detached plans and sections if possible. In General Cunningham's scheme of work he has divided the whole of India into five provinces of nearly equal size, and each of these again is divided into three sections, and each section is to form the work of one party for a year. At the same time orders have been issued to prevent the indiscriminate destruction of ancient buildings, but this will not be easily accomplished unless special custodians are appointed.

It is a known fact that to have hens that will lay all winter they must be hatched in May or June at latest, and then they will lay all winter and summer; to GERRITSEN's and buy a dozen of ZAHAMMA HEN'S EGGS, and you will have the best layers and the best fowls for the table.

Victoria's New Title Proclaimed to the People.

(From the London Gazette, April 26.)

BY THE QUEEN—A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA R. Whereas an act has been passed in the present session of parliament entitled "An act to enable Her Most Gracious Majesty to make an addition to the Royal style and titles appertaining to the imperial crown of the United Kingdom and its dependencies," which act recites that by the act for the union of Great Britain and Ireland it was provided that after such union the royal style and titles appertaining to the imperial crown of the United Kingdom and its dependencies should be such as Her Majesty, by her royal proclamation, under the great seal of the United Kingdom, should be pleased to appoint, and which act also recites that by virtue of the said act and of a royal proclamation under the great seal, dated the 1st day of January, 1801, our present style and titles are "Victoria, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, defender of the faith," and which act also recites that by the act for the better government of India it was enacted that the government of India, heretofore vested in the East India Company in trust for us, should become vested in us, and that India should thenceforth be governed by us and in our name, and that it is expedient that there should be a recognition of the transfer of government so made by means of an addition to be made to our style and titles, and which act after the said recitals enacts that it shall be lawful for us, with a view to such recognition as aforesaid of the transfer of the government of India, by our royal proclamation under the great seal of the United Kingdom to make such additions to the style and title at present appertaining to the imperial crown of the United Kingdom and its dependencies as to us may seem meet; we have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, to appoint and declare, and we do hereby, by and with the said advice, appoint and declare that henceforth, so far as conveniently may be, on all occasions and in all instruments wherein our style and titles are used, save and except all charters, commissions, letters patent, instruments, not extending in their operation beyond the United Kingdom, the following addition shall be made to the style and titles at present appertaining to the imperial crown of the United Kingdom and its dependencies, that is to say, in the Latin tongue in the words "Indiæ Imperatrix," and in the English tongue in these words, "Empress of India."

And our will and pleasure further is that all gold and copper moneys now current and lawful moneys of the United Kingdom, and all gold, silver and copper moneys which shall on or after this day be coined by our authorities, with the like impressions, shall, notwithstanding such addition to our style and titles, be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom; and further that all moneys coined for and issued in any of the dependencies of the said United Kingdom, and declared by our proclamation to be current and lawful money of such dependencies respectively, bearing our style or titles, or any part of the parts thereof, and all moneys which shall hereafter be coined and issued according to such proclamation, shall, notwithstanding such addition, continue to be lawful and current money of such dependencies respectively until our pleasure shall be further declared thereupon.

Given at our Court at Windsor, the 28th day of April, 1876, in the thirty-ninth year of our reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

The London 'Times' says that the plague, which for the last two years has appeared now and again in villages on the Lower Euphrates, has now broken out at Hilla, and that some cases have occurred at Bagdad. The disease has been absent from England for more than 150 years, and from the continent of Europe, and from its once favorite haunts in Egypt, Syria, and Mesopotamia, for about 40 years. The recent outbreaks, however, have shown no diminution of the old virulence, and there can be little doubt, when the present state of commercial communication is considered, that the malady will soon be conveyed from Bagdad to the Levant. From the Levant it might easily pass to Europe and even to our own shores. Fortunately, the unhealthy conditions of living by which plague was once fostered among ourselves no longer exist; and partly by reason of the powers now vested in local sanitary authorities, there is every reason to believe that any importation of the disease into England would be speedily controlled and kept within narrow limits. There can be no doubt, however, that it is the duty of the sanitary authorities, especially in seaport towns, to be fully prepared for any emergency which may arise, and to consider before hand the precautions which would be required if any case of plague should be brought within their jurisdiction.

"I don't want no lawyers; I've givine to tell the troof dis time," is what a regular customer at the Recorder's Court told his honor when that functionary inquired if he had engaged legal assistance.

A CARD.

EDITOR COLONIST.—Noticing an advertisement in your paper of the 17th inst., relating to the old story of the dog "Beniah," allow me to inform you, as well as Capt. Ingram, that he is mistaken with regard to the Mastick in his dates, also as to his positiveness that the dog was not taken over by the same steamer. All I have to say in the matter is simply this: that Captain Cronick, of the steamer Mastick, will and is willing to testify that the dog was taken by one of his men to Port Discovery and that she was there some time and it was not till they saw the reward offered, for the same in the "Free Press," that she was brought back to Nanaimo, when she was transferred to me, which I am prepared to prove by both our custom house official and Harbor-master, so that Capt. Ingram's memory has somewhat failed him in this matter. I am sorry that the matter has again been referred to, but at the same time I am not willing that the Captain should have the right of laying the blame at my door when I have no living testimony to the contrary. Perhaps the dog, for some reason or other, as all of his sailors did when lying at our port, and if it was the case, I am sure that it would have only been humane on the part of any feeling man or woman to have rendered sympathy by a substance in such a perilous hour. So good-bye Capt. Ingram, and good-bye to dog "Beniah."

Beacon Hill Races.

The attendance at the races was large considering the bad weather and the counter-attraction provided at Esquimalt. Haynes' Band contributed largely to the enjoyment of the day, discoursing sweet music in the intervals between the races and the spaces between the drops of rain. The first race was the Trial Stakes, weight 112 lbs., distance a single dash of a mile. Dixon's br. m. "Nell Flaherty," Lascelles' br. h. "Gladiator," and Howard's s. h. "Craieburn" were entered for this event. At starting "Craieburn" and "Gladiator" got well away together and ran neck-and-neck for the first half mile, when "Nell" caught the horses and ran in an easy winner. Time, 1 minute, 54 seconds.

The Queen's prize for a purse of $150, best 2 in 3 heats of a mile race, was next contested for by the same horses, "Craieburn" being on this occasion ridden by J. Taylor, by whom he was trained. The horses got an even start, "Gladiator" soon showing in front and maintaining his lead some distance. On the home stretch "Craieburn" and "Nell" got in advance, both going rapidly, "Craieburn" eventually winning by a neck; time, 1.53 1/4. For the second heat the horses started well together, but "Nell Flaherty" soon got ahead and won the heat in 1.56. "Nell Flaherty" was now the favorite in the betting which was lively. When the flag fell at the start for the third heat "Nell Flaherty" again got the lead and kept it for the first three-quarters of the mile. "Craieburn's" superb condition here told in his favor, as he answered gamely when called on by his rider and finished a splendid race a winner by two lengths. A good deal of money changed hands on this last race.

The first heat in the Trotting Race for $100 was won by Saunders' "Honest Ane," F. Reynolds' "Brown Jim" winning the next two and the race in 3 min. 6 sec. and 3 min. 9 sec.

Six horses started for the Scurry Stakes of $50, Howard's bay filly "Nelly Howard" proving herself the winner in 2 min. and 3 sec.; Miss Henley riding the second horse in jockey costume and style.

Queen's Birthday Party.

In response to the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Innes a large number of ladies and gentlemen assembled at the dockyard on Wednesday. It was originally intended that the entertainment should partake of a garden party, and the croquet lawn (the award of which was as soft as velvet), had been prepared for the amusement of the guests. The heavy rainfall, however, prevented the enjoyment of outdoor recreation, and the company were entertained in their spacious residence by Mr. and Mrs. Innes. Dancing commenced early in the afternoon and was continued until far into the evening. About 100 guests sat down to dinner in the evening and were made supremely happy by the assiduous attentions of their host and hostess who were unwearied in their endeavors to make everyone present feel "at home." The party will long be remembered by those who participated as one of the most delightful ever given on the Island.

Begbie; Mr. Justice Grease; Mr. Justice Gray; the Hon. Attorney-General; the Hon. Chief Commissioner of Lands & Works; the Hon. Minister of Finance; the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly; the Deputy Adjutant General, Major Roscoe, M. P.; Capt. Vinter; the Senior Naval Officer and Lieut. Nedham, R. N.; the Mayor of Victoria; the United States Consul; the German Consul; the Consul for Norway and Sweden; the Chilean Consul.

COAL.—The latest quotations from San Francisco are as follows:—We quote Bellingham Bay at $8.50; Coosue Cay, $8.10; California Mount Diablo Steam, $25.00; $8.40 for fine and coarse respectively; Wellington, $12; cargoes of Scotch and English Steam, $9.00; Cumberland, $18.22; Nanaimo, $9.50; Seattle, $10; Australian, $10.25 @ 10.50 per ton by the cargo.

An Opera Bouffe Company, of 18 performers, will be the next attraction on the northern coast.

The Queen's Birthday.

In England it is a common saying that the Queen can command the day. Perhaps she can; but Her Majesty evidently did not instruct the Clerk of the Weather on Wednesday last, or, as some were suggested, perhaps the day refused to be commanded by the newly-created Empress. The rain commenced steadily about noon and continued at intervals until six o'clock. Numbers of persons determined not to be done out of their holiday went to Esquimalt and made the best of a bad job. The arrangements for the convenience and comfort of the visitors were admirable, and the programme laid out for the day passed off without a hitch of any consequence, every one apparently working in harmony and unison.

SPORTS.

At one p.m. a few de-joies was fired from H.M.S. Rocket, followed by a salute of 21 guns from the Naval Yard, and then the boat races commenced and were carried out in the following order.

1st Race—Sailing Match, for boats not over 22 feet; Prize $20; Entrance $2.50, centre boards not allowed—Won by J. Longhurst, who beat Maynard easily, although the latter had the best of the start.

2nd Race—Blue Jacks, Whalers and Life Boats; Prize $25—Won by galley of H.M.S. Rocket.

3rd Race—Whitehall boats, pair oared, with or without Coxswains; Prize $15; Entrance $1—Won by Keeller and Isibitor.

4th Race—Indian Canoes; Prize $2 each paddle—For this race three canoes entered: Victoria, Esquimalt and Port Rupert were represented. The Victorians won easily owing to the superiority of their canoe and also their style.

5th Race—Marines vs. Stokers (match) Whalers; Prize $20—Won easily by the Stokers.

6th Race—Four Oared Boats, not over 24 feet, open to all comers, with Coxswains; Prize $50; Entrance $5—This was the great race of the day being a test of Victoria vs. Esquimalt. The former were represented by J. Cotsford, E. Wall, and two Stewart Bros. against a good crew of Esquimalt waterman. The distance was 3 1/2 miles which was accomplished by the Victoria crew in 28 minutes, beating their opponents with ease by 35 seconds.

7th Race—Dingies (Black and White) Prizes $10 and $5—The Black Dingies had considerably the best of this race, taking the first prize; the second prize went to the first of the Whites that came in.

8th Race—Single Sculls, Boats not over 19 feet; Prize $30; Entrance $2.50—Four boats entered for this race, but the contest was only between H. Stewart and R. Keeller, the latter winning with ease.

9th Race—Match, un-decked Boats, open to all, Prize $25; Entrance $1—Three entries. Won by Rooke's cutter.

10th Race—Indian Canoes; Prize, $2 each paddle. In this race the Port Rupert crew procured a Plashed canoe claiming that they were beaten in the former race by the canoe, but they were again defeated badly by the Victoria crew, who paddled beautifully. These canoe races were without doubt the prettiest races of the day.

The programme concluded with 13th Event—A Duck Hunt; Prize—Winner $10 Loser $5—The duck was caught.

14th Event—Greasy Pole on the water, Prize $10 and a Joint.

The Nigger Minstrels entertained the spectators for an hour or so and then commenced the dancing in Sellock's Hall, which was carried on with great spirit till 8 p.m. at which time the steamer Cariboo-Fly made her last trip, bringing home every one well pleased with their day's amusement notwithstanding the rain.

Too much praise cannot be given the efficient committee who inaugurated the Regatta, and who, despite the most discouraging circumstance of a pelting rain, carried the programme through with entire success. The committee was composed of the following named gentlemen: C. R. Harris, R. N., chairman, J. H. Innes, Vice-Chairman, William Arthur, A. R. P. Bailey, R. N., M. Oates, R. N., Capt. J. Cooper, D. Eckstein, U. S. Consul, W. Fisher, J. P., M. P., John Harman, F. E. Keast, P. J. Leech, Thos. Reynolds, R. N., J. S. Needham, R. N., Secretary; J. H. Innes, Treasurer.

H. M. S. Rocket was beautifully decorated with flags in honor of the day and presented a handsome appearance. The dockyard, which was afire with bunting, was visited by hundreds during the day; and the main street of the village was filled with interested throngs of people from Victoria and the adjacent districts.

HORSE KILLED.—Yesterday morning a saddle-horse belonging to Goodacre & Co. was standing tied to one of the pickets of a fence in James Bay ward, when it suddenly tore out the picket and bolted, carrying the picket along with it. While running, the picket somehow got under the poor animal and was driven into him, causing such a wound that the entrails protruded and in this condition he continued his career until he reached his pasture where it was decided to put him out of his misery; but while search was being made for a revolver the poor animal died. Messrs. Goodacre lose a valuable horse by this piece of ill luck.

A GO-AHEAD CITY.—The number of buildings erected during the year ending February 29th, 1875, at San Francisco, is estimated at 1,840; 44 of these are of brick, and they include the Palace Hotel, the Nevada block, the Safe Deposit block, and Wade's Opera House. Four-fifths of the wooden houses erected are of one and two stories. The remaining fifth includes a number of costly and elegant residences, including that of ex-Governor Stanford. The aggregate of the improvements is estimated at $12,500,000, an amount exceeding that of any other year in the same direction.

LANGLEY.—The weather has improved considerably of late, and every sort of vegetation is coming forward very well, notwithstanding the unusually cold winds which retarded the coming of the proverbial "May flowers." Seeding is mostly completed, with the exception of some who have not yet finished turnip sowing. The late moist weather has sent up a fine close flush of grass; the hay crop has thereby got a good start. Mr. Healy and a large staff of assistants are fast getting out bricks for the Asylum. They mould on an average 8,000 per diem.

A STRANGE PHENOMENON.—Within the last few days an immense number of bugs appear to have fallen from the clouds on the waters of English Bay in countless myriads, and not only cover the entire surface, but are also in clumps. They appear to be amphibious, and although immersed in the water, do not go down. They float about till wind or tide carries them to the shore, where they lie till their wings are dry, and then they fly. They were seen in millions, marching on over various places about the Bay and False Creek. They are small—about the size of an ordinary house fly, and black.

TWO VESSELS.—The Stormy Petrel, to Hastings and the Antioch, to Mooliville—arrived within the last few days, to load lumber at the Inlet.

DROWNED.—An Indian was drowned in False Creek a few days ago while under the influence of whiskey. Dr. Trow, Coroner, went out on Monday and held an inquest, which, however, was adjourned owing to the absence of an important witness.

SUPREME COURT.—At Yale only one case was on the docket—a charge against a whiteman of killing an Indian woman. The Grand Jury found no bill, and the prisoner was therefore discharged.

THURSDAY, May 24.
Edward Inkley, charged with insubordinate conduct on board the bark Briery Hill, was discharged on the intercession of Capt. Baird.

Bill, a Hydah, was remanded till to-day on a charge of assaulting another Indian with a knife.

James Dunn and Joseph Brown, arrested for raising a disturbance at Manot's, on Johnson street, were ordered to find bail in $50 and two sureties of $25 each.

Three or four drunks were fined the usual amount and discharged.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE.—The Bellingham Bay (Whatcom county) Mail says: Our County Commissioners did a praiseworthy act, at their recent session, in instructing the Auditor to correspond with the Commissioner of Public Works of British Columbia with the view of enlisting that functionary's co-operation with the people of Whatcom county in their efforts to connect Bellingham Bay with the Fraser river valley. It is proposed to British Columbia to extend the Fort Hope and New Westminster post road to a point on the boundary line, near Sumas Prairie, to intersect the Whatcom and Nootsack road that is now approaching completion to that line. The mutual benefit to both sections from the completion of an enterprise of this character cannot be over-estimated, as it will afford a cheap and convenient route of intercommunication for the travel and traffic that is unmistakably fast developing in this direction.

THE TARCO RIVER.—The Oregonian is in receipt of a letter from Fort Wrangel which says: "A company of ten practical miners is fitting out here for the purpose of prospecting the Tarco country. They fit out with six months' supplies. The party take three canoes. The course from here is nearly west to the mouth of the Tarco river, distance 120 miles. Then they go up the Tarco about 70 miles to the forks of the river, and prospect from the forks. It is firmly believed that there is gold in that country, and all look anxiously for their success. The company are all hardy able-bodied men, and every person has full confidence in their determination to do all that can be done to succeed. Geo. Clark, of Douglas county, Oregon, has been chosen captain.

A VICTORIA BOUND SHIP ON FIRE IN LONDON DOCKS.—The Government have received intelligence that the bark Hilarion, loading at London for this port, took fire a few days ago and sustained some damage to cargo. On board this vessel was the pumping machinery for the dry-dock, ordered by Mr. Watkin when in England, and valued at forty thousand and odd dollars. The report that first reached here said that the machinery had been damaged slightly; but a cable telegram received a day or two ago by the Chief Commissioner states that it escaped injury and that the bark sailed Saturday. The machinery, it is proper to state, was insured by Mr. Sprout when at London.

CRICKET.—The Victoria Cricket Club and the Old Fellows' eleven will play a match to-morrow at Beacon Hill, commencing at 12 noon. Schaffer's band will perform during the afternoon.

O. O. F.—J. B. Matthews, J. Howard, T. Flewin, J. Todd, J. Partridge, R. Green, Jos. Davies, Dr. Davis, F. Fernie, J. Griffiths, A. Rome.

THE CARIBOO-FLY.—The trips of the steamer Cariboo-Fly between Esquimalt and Victoria, on Wednesday, formed a very pleasant feature in the programme of the day. Capt. Holmes and his officers were most obliging to all, and the boat accomplished the trips very quickly, making the run each time from wharf to wharf (a distance of 6 miles) in 20 minutes—a rate of about 18 miles an hour.

CARRIED OFF.—The steamship City of Panama was not permitted to discharge her Victoria freight on Wednesday and so carried it away to the Sound. She will return to-day, and after discharging the freight for this port will proceed to Nanaimo for a cargo of coal.

ACCIDENT.—A wagon containing a number of Chinamen on their way to the Regatta was upset on the Esquimalt road on Wednesday and one of the Celestials had three ribs broken.

were read from R. S. Rendall stating that he was commencing a ditch which would drain Simcoe and O'wego street, and asking the assistance of the Council to the extent of his taxes, viz: $25. Referred to the Street Committee to report upon.

From Mr. Doughty, stating that a child belonging to a poor family lately arrived from Canada fell sick and died, while the father was up on the Fraser looking for work. Dr. Ash attended the child and gave the patient the necessary succor at his own expense. Mr. Doughty took charge of the body and buried it, and now asked to have half the amount of the burial expenses, $27.50, refunded.

Coun. Gowen said he knew something of the case, which he described as one of real distress.

Coun. Troncoe, seconded by Coun. Vigelinus, moved that the request be granted.

Coun. Marvin said that while he believed the case was one which ought, perhaps, to be considered, he objected on the ground that it might establish a bad precedent, and suggested that the Clerk make application to the B. C. Benevolent Association.

After a few remarks from the Mayor, Coun. Gowen gave it as his opinion that as the case under discussion was respecting a burial, and that it was the duty of the Corporation to bury those who could not otherwise obtain burial, he thought that this case fell within their duties.

On motion of Coun. Troncoe it was ordered that the request be granted, and also that the Clerk convey the thanks of the Corporation to Mr. Doughty.

On motion of Coun. Troncoe, the bill to define the duties of the Health Officer of Victoria was read a second time and passed, and it was ordered, on motion of Coun. Gowen that the said bill be published for seven days.

FINANCE.

Labor on streets, $86.75, for fortnight ending May 23d; P. Carter $4. This last bill, which was for removing sandy dead dogs and cats, was ordered to lay over until Coun. Williams, who had ordered the work to be done, was present; the bill for labor on streets took the usual course.

Coun. Gowen moved that the appointment of the Health Officer, in accordance with the provisions of the new bylaw, be now made.

Coun. Vigelinus, seconded by Coun. Marvin, moved in amendment that the appointment be deferred for one week. The original motion was carried by the casting vote of the Mayor.

Coun. Troncoe, seconded by Coun. Gowen, moved, in a very complimentary speech, that Dr. Walkem be appointed Health Officer for the remainder of the Municipal year. Carried.

Council adjourned.

PROFESSOR PENARD, of Paris, who has come over with the view of studying the Indian languages of this neighborhood, was brought into the Council Chamber by the Mayor yesterday evening and accommodated with a chair by the side of his worship. Whether he found the situation favorable to linguistic study is unknown; but doubtless he will find plenty of our citizens who will be ready and willing to assist him.

DIPHTHERIA.—The Olympian says: That fearful scourge diptheria has again made its appearance at Seattle. It is said that one of the physicians has at least a dozen patients under treatment. The malady visited that city several months ago, with terrible severity, but it was thought that the seeds of the disease had been completely eradicated.

The steamer North Pacific arrived here yesterday afternoon from the Sound with the mails, express and about 11 tons of freight. She brought about 30 passengers, amongst whom was J. D. Pemberton, Esq., who brought 11 horses from the other side.

The steamer Cariboo-Fly left yesterday for Comox and way ports with a number of passengers and a fair freight.

The Lieutenant-Governor and his Schemes.

EDITOR COLONIST:—It is not often that, under Responsible Government, a Governor becomes the object of direct newspaper criticism. Fortunately it is not often deserved. Still more seldom does it happen that the daily papers published in this Province are found in hearty accord on any public question. The circumstance of these journals being so thoroughly in accord in criticizing the Lieutenant-Governor of this Province may well be accepted as an indication of the universality of popular condemnation of the public career of that self-important and self-seeking functionary. That he has his personal friends and small circle of admirers is undoubted. The wonder is that there are so few and so uninfluential. There are, of course, a few who object to all unfavorable criticism of their friend and patron. Praise him as much as you like; but a word of dispraise and one is told that it is "cowardly to attack a Governor." That depends altogether on circumstances. There is a point beyond which forbearance ceases to be a virtue; and it is the soberly formed opinion of not a few moderate thinkers that quite enough of forbearance has been exercised in this case—that sneaking behind a constitutional bug-bear, this man has too long been permitted with impunity to play his selfish games at the country's expense. Looking at his post-prandial utterances, in 1871, in the light of subsequent events, one can see very clearly the irreparable mischief he did in his eagerness to secure a Governorship. Very much of our railway trouble is undoubtedly attributable to those unfortunate words which are so often quoted against us at Ottawa. It must be some satisfaction for you to reflect that you had the perspicacity and manliness to denounce those utterances at the time.

But if Mr. Trutch sold Columbia's Railway Bond at Ottawa for a Lieutenant-Governorship, there seems too much reason to fear that he was prepared to enter upon another similar transaction in order to secure a free trip to England with the chance of a title or another appointment, or both.

There appears to be no rational ground for doubt that he was the originator of the nice little scheme and the veritable author of the extraordinary documents so artfully designed to carry it out. Indeed, facts have since leaked out which leave no room for doubt on that point. The document lies before me; and that man must indeed be hopelessly stupid or wilfully blind who reading it in the light of past circumstances and concurrent events, cannot discover on the face of it a deliberate plot on the part of the prime mover to sacrifice, or at least imperil, the best interests of this Province for personal aggrandizement.

Did these two acts (that of 1871 and that so recently contemplated but so fortunately nipped in the bud) stand alone one might feel disposed to greater leniency; but they only constitute prominent links in one continuous chain of acts and circumstances so completely dovetailing into one another and amply justifying the severity of your contemporary's criticism when it intimated that this man's life must have been "Joseph William Trutch first—the Province afterwards." HAVANA, May 23.—The mail steamer has arrived from Vera Cruz. She brings no Mexican news. SACRAMENTO, May 20.—Judge B. F. Ferris, a prominent citizen of Oakland, committed suicide about 5 o'clock this morning by jumping from the upper deck of the steamer "Amador" into the Sacramento river as the boat was nearing this city. Before taking the fatal leap he had tied his hands firmly together with a handkerchief and swallowed almost the contents of a three ounce vial of laudanum. He left an affectionate letter to his wife and daughter at Oakland announcing his intention of self-destruction, which also clearly indicated that the unfortunate man was insane.

The clothing of a female was found on Thursday on the bank near Bow's distillery, Mission creek, and naked foot prints leading from them and along the muddy beach to the water. SIR—I have the honor to transmit to you, for publication in the Government Gazette, a copy of a Treaty between Her Majesty and the President of the Republic of Honduras for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals, and also of the Order in Council of the 5th February, 1876, therein referred to.
I have, &c.,
(Signed) CARNARVON,
The Governor of Canada.

At the Court at Osborn House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1876.
PRESENT,
The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," and also by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Extradition Act, 1870," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender of such fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall not apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State, subject to such exceptions, and subject to such conditions, as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the sixth day of January, 1874, between Her Majesty and the President of the Republic of Honduras, for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:
Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Excellency the President of the Republic of Honduras, having agreed to the said Treaty, and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, have named as their Plenipotentiaries, to conclude a Treaty for this purpose (that is to say):
Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Edwin Corbett, Esq., Her Majesty's charge d'Affaires and Consul-General at the Republic of Honduras, &c.;
And His Excellency the President of the Republic of Honduras, the Senor Don Augustin Gomez Carrillo, Deputy to the present Legislature of Guatemala, &c.

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:
ARTICLE I.
The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of a crime committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party, under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

It is agreed that Her Britannic Majesty and His Excellency the President of Honduras shall, on requisition made in their name by their respective Diplomatic Agents, deliver up to each other reciprocally any persons, except native subjects or citizens of the party upon whom the requisition may be made, who, being accused or convicted, whether as principal or as accessory, either before or after the fact, of any of the crimes hereinafter specified, committed within the jurisdiction of the requiring Party, shall be found within the territories of the other Party.

1. Murder, or attempt or conspiracy to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Counterfeiting or altering money, or uttering counterfeit or altered money.
4. Forgery, counterfeiting or altering, or uttering what is forged or counterfeited or altered.

8. Crimes against the bankruptcy law.
9. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee or director or member or public officer of any Company made criminal by any law for the time being in force.

10. Perjury or subornation of perjury.

17. Robbery with violence.
18. Threats by letter or otherwise, with intent to extort.
19. Piracy by law of nations.
20. Sinking or destroying of vessel at sea, or attempting or conspiring to do so.
21. Assaults on board a ship on the high seas with intent to destroy life or to do grievous bodily harm.
22. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas against the authority of the master.

Provided that no surrender shall be made only when, in the case of a person accused, the commission of the crime shall be so established as that the laws of the country where the fugitive or person so accused shall be found would justify his apprehension and commitment for trial if the crime had been there committed; and, in the case of a person alleged to have been convicted on such evidence as according to the laws of the country where he is found, would prove that he had been convicted.

ARTICLE III.
No Honduras as above stated shall be delivered up by the Government of Honduras to the Government of the United Kingdom, and no subject of the United Kingdom shall be delivered up by the Government thereof to the Government of Honduras.

ARTICLE IV.
The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of Honduras has already been tried and acquitted or punished, or is still under trial, in the territory of the United Kingdom or of Honduras respectively for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

(If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government on Honduras, should be under examination for any other crime in the territory of the United Kingdom or of the Republic of Honduras respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.)

ARTICLE V.
The extradition shall not take place if, subsequent to the commission of the crime or the institution of the penal prosecution or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE VI.
A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove, that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.
A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime, or on account of any other matter, than those for which the extradition has been taken place. This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.
The requisition for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent authority of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A requisition for extradition cannot be founded on sentences passed in contumaciam.

ARTICLE IX.
If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authority of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case. If the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

Notices.

ARTICLE X.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the commitment of the prisoner for trial, in case the same had been committed in the territory of the said State; or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTICLE XI.
In the examination which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of State.

If sufficient evidence for extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, he shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XII.
All persons seized while in the possession of the article to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension shall be committed to the custody of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place and the said delivery shall extend, not only to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE XIII.
The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered and his conveyance to the place of board ship; they reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

ARTICLE XIV.
The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or Possession by the Chief Consular Officer of the Republic of Honduras in such Colony or Possession.

Such requisition may be disposed of (subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty) by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, best liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Honduran criminals who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis, as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign Possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding article of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVI.
The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Guatemala, in twelve months counted from this day.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Guatemala, the sixth day of the month of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

AGN. GOMEZ CARRILLO.
And whereas the ratifications of the Treaty were exchanged at Guatemala on the twelfth day of October last.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the President of the Republic of Honduras.
